Te the Honorable, the Board of Police Commissioners.
Gentlemen: We submit to you herewith contes of communications which have this day been transmitted to Thomas Byrnes, Superintendent of Police, and to Capt. Edward Slevin, of the Fourth Police Preciset.

While not members of the Police Department, you nevertheless constitute its administrative head and are, in the last analysis, responsible for everything in the way of either incompetency, negligence or criminality that distinguishes any part of the service.

It is incumbent upon us, therefore, to direct your attention to the subjoined list of resorts which have been found by our detectives to be maintained as disorderly houses, and to demand that you immediately see to it that the pressure of the Department is exercised in the immediate and impartial suppression of the same.

By examining the files in your office, you will discover that complaints for the non-enforcement of law have been on three occasions urged by the Society for the Prevention of Crime against this same officer.

Your own appreciation of the fitzens of things would seem, would hardly make a cour own appreciation of the fitzess of things, would seem, would hardly make its necessary us to say that in order to determine fully the lidity of our present complaint, you will need employ agencies other than those which are the terms of the complaint made defendants the case. Respectfully yours.

Dr. Parkhurst explains the attitude f his Society towards Capt. Slevin, in ie following letter: Edward Slevin, Capt. of the Fourth Police To Edward Sievis, Capt. of the Fourth Police Pracinet;
Sir: Your attention is asked to the 2826 section of the Consolidation act as follows:
"It is hereby made the duty of the police force at all times of day night, and the members of such force are hereby thereunto empowered to exercise and exercise and inspect all places of publices having excise or other licenses to carry on any business; all houses of lit-fame or prostitution, and houses where common prostitutes resort or reside; " and to repress and restrain all unlawful or disorderly conduct or practices therein, enforce and prevent the violation of all laws and ordinances in force in said eity, and for these purposes with or without warrants, to arrest all persons guilty of violating any law or ordinance for the suppression of crime or inference." See also Section 285 of the same act; also rule 65 of "Rules and Regulations of the Folice Department," as foliows "Captains will be held strictly responsible for the preservation of the public peace in their precincts; and to insure good order they are vested with the power to put the men under their command in such parts of their precincts and to assign them to such duties as they deem expedient under the supervision of the Superintendent and Inspector of the district and is accordance with the Complaint is made that a number of the persons indicted were informed privately of the fact, and it is said that a number of them have left the city. Inquiry was made at the District-Attorney's office this morning whether ex-Bridge Policeman Michael F. Lally had been arrested. The inquirer said he was a friend of Lally's.

He was told that Mr. Lally had not yet failen into the toils, and the District-Attorney declined to say whether or not there was any prospect of such an arrest.

All of the prisoners will be arranged or pleading to-morrow, according to Mr. Nicoli. The fact that the Court of Oyer and Terminer was not in session to-day had prevented him from disposing of the cases earlier.

Holland lived at 101 Barrow street. What caused the separation between husband and wife cannot be learned.

Ex-Alderman Holland died some time ago under peculiar circumstances. It was said that he was sand-bagged at the time, but nothing definite was ascertained as to who it was that assaulted the ex-Alderman.

At 101 Barrow street it was denied that Mrs. Holland had ived there with her husband. It was said that Holland had made his home there with an aunt and cousin since he separated from his wife three months ago. At that time they lived somewhere on Charlton street.

Mr. Holland a cousin, said that Holland was a worthless fellow, and that Mrs. Holland was compelled to leave him. The cousin intimated that Holland had been hanging around 345 Hudson street, where his wife was staying for a week or more.

At one time, the cousin said, Holland threatened to kill his wife, and that this threat had led him to swear out a warrant for his arrest.

The race to-day looked like a close fight between Schock, Waller, Martin and Albert, for no one believes that Martin will give up the fight because of blisters atterhis wonderful work in the record-breaking run of 1,465 miles, 7 laps in 143 hours, made with one knee-joint dry and rasping, and the whole leg swollen for twenty-eight hours to twice its natural size. Street-Cleaning Commissioner Andrews had a hot and exciting five-minutes' conversation with the Board of Estimate and Apportionment to-day.

Mr. Andrews, despite all efforts, has been unable to make up the deficiency which "Big Tom" Brennan left him as a legacy. He announced to the Board to-day that he is still $11,000 short, and he wanted that amount trasferred from some other departments to run his deverged.

"I want some assurance from the Comptroller that I will get the money," exclaimed Mr. Andrews.

"I can't give any other assurance than that I will do the best I can," replied Comptroller Myers.

Mr. Andrews lost his temper. He grew red in the face and almost shouted:

"Very well, then, if I den't get the money I'll discharge every man in the Department."

That made Commissioner Barker wrothy, and re exclaimed, with some asperity:

"You can't buildoze this Board, Mr. Andrews."

"And you can't buildoze me," retorted the actor-lawyer-editor-Commissioner.

Mayor Gilroy told Mr. Andrews that he shouldn't talk that way. He spoke softly and with almost tenderness in his voice, eulogizing Mr. Andrews for his efficacy and ability.
